Youth Group Prexy Goes To Conclave

The Walther League of Ascension Lutheran Church is sending their president, Art Neumann, of 3804 W. 181st St. Torrance, to the Southern California District Walther League Convention.

The Convention is to be held Aug. 29 and 30th on the campus of the University of Redlands. The dorms were made available for those attending. A square dance will be held Saturday evening. Swimming, tennis and other sports will be available.

Representatives from Walther Leagues throughout the Southland will be attending.

MOUNTAIN RANGE
The Sierra Nevada mountains run through inland California and roughly parallel to the Pacific coast line.

'50th State' Is Topic for Night Service

"Our Fiftieth State" will be the theme of the 7:30 p.m. Sunday service at the Calvary Baptist Church, located at 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd.

Rev. and Mrs. H. Earl Kuester, and Mrs. Juanita B. Anderson, director of Christian education, who have just returned from the Baptist Youth Fellowship sponsored tour of the Hawaiian Islands will combine the finest of their colored slides and narrate the scenes shown. The pictures will show flowers, beach scenes, volcanoes, native lore, places of historic interest, places of natural beauty, and religious life on the Islands.

Following the evening service, a reception honoring new members of the month and retiring staff members will be held in the Fellowship Hall.

Mrs. Anderson's resignation was handed in at the August 5th monthly business meeting of the church. Paul Ratlaf, Minister of Music, has resigned to accept an invitation to a similar position with the Eagle Rock Baptist Church. Both resignations become effective September 1st.

The pastor will preach at both the 8:30 and 11 a.m. worship services next Sunday.

Lomita Church Reports Revival Very Successful

The First Baptist Church of Lomita concluded a series of Revival Services Aug. 23rd with the largest number of conversions during any summer crusade. Record crowds attended every service, was the report given by their pastor, James W. Hardin.

Bruce Anthony, pastor of the Arlington Baptist Church, was the guest Evangelist and Warren Davenport, of California Baptist College, directed the music. Although this was a youth-led Revival with young people of the local church serving on all committees and filling the major positions, there was a seventy-two-year-old man among the twenty-four others who came for baptism.

Rev. Don Smith, returned missionary from Alaska, was the guest speaker last night and showed colored slides on the mission needs of Alaska.

THE NEWLY elected general church officers are as follows: Sunday School Superintendent, Melvin Loken; Training Union Director, Daniel Eck; W.M.S. President, Mrs. Robert Merritt; Choir Director, Richard Wallner; Organist, Martha Fluke; Pianist, Betty Nichols; Treasurer, Gilbert Patterson; Financial Secretary, Allie Harrison; Recording Secretary, Mrs. William Ogden;

Christ Jesus Sermon Topic For Sunday

"Christ Jesus" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon wherever congregations of the Church of Christ, Scientist, meet on Sunday. The sermon will point to Jesus' admonitions and counsel to his followers as well as to his inspiring life example.

A verse from John, the beloved disciple, keynotes the sermon as its Golden Text, "God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life" (3:16).

After referring to Jesus' healing work, a Bible citation from Luke is given where Christ Jesus "called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases." The account goes on to state: "And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing everywhere" (9:1, 6).

A selection from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" shortly follows where Mary Baker Eddy says, "Jesus established in the Christian era to the precedent for all Christianity, theology, and healing. . . Our Master said to every follower: 'Go ye into the world, and preach the gospel to every creature! . . . Heal the sick . . . Love thy neighbor as thyself!' It was this theology of Jesus which healed the sick and the sinning" (p. 138).

GEORGE Q. MORRIS . . . addresses conclave

High Officials Will Preside at Area Conference

Members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormon) will hear addresses by two prominent Church leaders at the Torrance Stake Conference on Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 29 and 30, in the Redondo Stake Center.

The visitors are Elder George Q. Morris, a member of the Council of Twelve Apostles, and Elder Sewart B. Eccles of the General Welfare Staff.

Conducting Saturday meetings and Sunday General Sessions at 11:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. will be Roland E. Gagon, 3332 Winlock Road, Torrance, California Stake President. The public is invited to attend.

Elder Morris directed the world-wide youth program of the Church of 11 years, has been active in the scouting program, and is noted for his efforts in civic groups, including pioneer trails associations and monument commissions.

Elder Eccles is a director of the famed Church Welfare Plan.

Each of the nearly 300 stakes or regional divisions of the Church, holds a conference four times yearly. Speakers will report on the expanding missions of the Church here and abroad, and give counsel concerning the youth program, Priesthood Quorums, Relief Society, and Welfare Programs.

General Conference for the Church will be held in Salt Lake City's historic Mormon Tabernacle, Oct. 8-11.

World-wide membership is more than 1.5 million, and the Church maintains a full-time missionary force of nearly 6000 in some 50 missions.

Value of Church Is Subject for KNX Program

"The Value of Church Today" will be the subject of a Christian Science program to be given on KNX Radio's "Church of the Air" series, in cooperation with the Christian Science Church on Sunday, Aug. 30, at 8:05 to 8:30 a.m. The speaker will be Joe W. Hamilton, Christian Science practitioner and former Reader.

Ancient Jewish Ceremony Set For Tomorrow

The ancient Jewish ceremony of Bar Mitzvah will be performed tomorrow night at Temple Menorah of the South Bay, 112 N. Catalina, Redondo Beach, as Robert Greene, 13-year-old son of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Sidney Greene of the Hollywood Riviera, will be inducted into adult Jewish status.

Bar Mitzvah (Son of the Commandments) takes place during the regular Sabbath Services, when, after the reading of the Bible from the ancient scroll, Greene dedicated himself to the Commandments of God. Following this avowal, he will be blessed with the traditional blessing by Rabbi Henri E. Front, spiritual leader of the South Bay's only Jewish congregation.

Taking part in the Service, which begins at 8:30 p.m., will be Greene's mother, who will bless the Sabbath candles, and his father, who will pass the sacred scroll to his son, symbolizing the passing down of Judaism from father to son.

Bible School at Walteria Slated For Next Week

Vacation Bible School will be conducted in the Walteria First Baptist Church from Aug. 31 through Sept. 4. Old Testament Heroes will provide some challenges and thrills for the children who enroll. The church welcomes all from ages 4 thru 14. The school session will run from 9:30 - 11:30 each morning. Some lively devices for memory work and Bible reading will lend interest to the school, as will the exciting "Sword Drill" contest.

Competent teachers will serve each age group: for beginners, Mrs. Robert Burns, Mrs. Margaret McGhee, and Mrs. James Cantrell; for primaries, Mrs. Stanley Glover, Mrs. Florence Furlong, Mrs. Russel Furlong, and Mrs. Doyle Young; for juniors, Mrs. L. Gann, Lloyd Hughes, Robert Glover, and Dennis Puckett; for junior high, Mrs. Norman Goodrich and Mrs. C. C. Lilly. The secretary is Dan Lawson, and the leader is Miss Irene Mills.

The church is located at Park and Newton streets. Rev. L. P. Husted is pastor.

Witnessing the ceremony will be the entire congregation, friends, and relatives of the Greeses, and these proceedings are open to the public.

On hand for the ceremony are the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Mason, of New York City. Especially interested will be Donald Greene, the brother of the Bar Mitzvah candidate, who will soon be preparing himself, for his own ceremony, to take place in three years.

A reception, to follow the Services, is being planned by the Greeses.

'Gospel for Today' Is Sermon Topic at Alondra Methodist

"The Gospel for Today" will be the title of the sermon to be preached by the Reverend Earl W. Isbell during the 9 and 10:30 a.m. worship services this Sunday at Alondra Park Methodist Church, 3153 West Compton Blvd. This sermon is expected to be the climax in a five-week series on the gospel, concluding on Labor Sunday with an application of the gospel to our economic and social order.

Explaining that "gospel" means "good news," Mr. Isbell stated that he takes it to be the Christian preacher's task and opportunity to bring the gospel to his people. "Some would say that the gospel never changes; some say that it must change with the times. I think that this controversy is a matter of interpretation, but certainly it is up to the preacher to interpret and apply the gospel for the people of his day. This will be my purpose and attempt this Sunday in as clear a statement as I can make."

NEW MEMBERS will be receiving into the church during both services, this Sunday. Persons of Christian faith who would like to be members of a modern congregation striving to understand and apply the Christian gospel in today's life and world are invited to make known your desires to the pastor through the church office Monday to Friday, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Persons may unite by certificate of transfer from another congregation or by declaration of faith in Christ and assumption of vows of loyalty to the church.

In preparation for a change in Sunday worship and study hours to be effective Sept. 13, the church choir is being reorganized to form two separate choirs. It is expected that an adult choir will sing regularly in the earlier service and an all-youth choir in a later morning service. Both sections will continue for the present to rehearse on Thursdays at 7:30 p.m. All youth and adults, members of the church or not, are invited to engage in the choral program.

THE NEW schedule will bring an emphasis upon a weekly experience of both worship and study for all ages in two-hour periods. The extended time will be made possible through a "middle" period of creative activity for children while their parents and the youth of the church are engaged in study. Parents may enroll children in the Sunday church school on Sunday or during the week by registration through the church office.

Neglect not the assembling of yourselves together . . . Make Sunday a day of spiritual refreshment.
